PUBLIC ACCESS TO VIDEO CONFERENCE HEARINGS

During the term of the Emergency Orders issued by the Texas Supreme Court, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, all hearings in the Child Protection Court of South Central Texas will be held by video conference. Participants will be notified of how to participate.

In compliance with the open courts provision of the Texas Constitution, video conference hearings are open to the public. While as with any other proceeding in court, the public may not participate, the video and audio will be livestreamed on the court's YouTube channel, shown below, and may be viewed on any internet capable device able to access YouTube. Those needing special accommodations for public access may contact the Court Coordinator at Dora.Gonzales@txcourts.gov.
