State of Texas Proposition 1

The constitutional amendment authorizing the state to create a lottery to promote educational, charitable, or cultural purposes and to be regulated by the legislative branch of the government.

For (A Favor)
Against (E Against)

State of Texas Proposition 2

The constitutional amendment allowing the state to impose a tax on sales of certain goods and services to fund public education.

For (R Favor)
Against (E Against)

State of Texas Proposition 3

The constitutional amendment prohibiting the state from entering into agreements for the provision of religious services by state facilities.

For (R Favor)
Against (E Against)

State of Texas Proposition 4

The constitutional amendment establishing a right for residents of certain religious minority groups to exercise their religious freedom.

For (R Favor)
Against (E Against)

State of Texas Proposition 5

The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for an exemption from sales and use taxes on all or part of the market value of the residential homestead of the surviving spouse of a deceased spouse who owned an interest in the homestead at the time of death.

For (R Favor)
Against (E Against)